Farmhand Is Being Sought In Triple Crime

Two Men And Woman Murdered On Farm Near North Lima, Ohio

BELIEVE ROBBERY SLAYING MOTIVE

Police Of Three States Are On Lookout For Trace Of Suspect In Tragedy

(BULLETIN)

(International News Service)

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Jan. 5.—

Despite a three-state police alarm, Norman Smith, 21-year-old farmhand sought as a suspect in the killing of Henry Baumeister, 38; his wife, Beatrice, 36, and his 70-year-old father, Theodore, on their farm one mile south of North Lima, was still at large today at an early hour this afternoon.

A house-to-house canvasser making his monthly round, uncovered the gruesome crime.

When authorities arrived they found Baumeister lying in a pool of blood on the kitchen floor, a bullet wound in his heart and two in his head.

Hunt For Farmhand

The aged man and Baumeister's wife were found in the barn, their heads and bodies covered with knife wounds, their bodies partially covered with corn husks. Nearby was found a bloody corn husking knife.

The elder Baumeister was still alive when found and was rushed to a hospital where he died.

Local authorities soon sent out an alarm for a farmhand employed on the Baumeister farm and police from Ohio, Pennsylvania, and West Virginia were soon enlisted in the search.

Authorities said the missing farmhand sped away from the farm in the Baumeister automobile an hour before the slayings were discovered.

The suspect for which police were looking was believed to be a resident of Indiana, Pa.

An earlier suspect by the same name was definitely eliminated when he was located by police today in the state of California.

The motive for the slayings were believed by police to have been robbery.

BOILER BURNS DRY IN WRIGHT BUILDING

Firemen were called to the Wright Building at 346 East Washington street, at 8:30 o'clock Tuesday evening, when the automatic feeder to the boiler failed to operate and the boiler dried up.

The tubes in the boiler became too hot, filling the building with smoke. Firemen assisted in drawing the fire in the boiler.

Firemen were called to Smith's Dining Car on South Mercer street, last evening, when Mr. Smith left some rags to boil in a bucket and the fire burned dry, lighting the rags. There was no loss.

PA NEW OBSERVES

Pa New notes that stop signs are being erected along Albert street at intersections. Albert street, recently paved, has become a much traveled thoroughfare, and the signs now being erected will require motorists to stop before crossing it at intersecting streets. These signs should be a large safety factor in traffic on the thoroughfare, as a number of minor accidents had already occurred, due to the failure of drivers on either street to stop.

According to the weather forecaster at Pittsburgh, colder weather is on its way to western Pennsylvania.

Report Bowers Confesses Philadelphia Slaying

(International News Service)
LOUISVILLE, Ky., Jan. 5.—Federal agents today slashed through state lines to speed Wendell Forrest Bowers to trial in Philadelphia as the "marble eye" slayer of Mrs. William V. Carpenter on December 16.

Bowers, according to G-men, confessed last night he had shot the pretty widow and then tried to attack her friend, Mary Griffin, when they caught him in the house.

He was immediately placed under $100,000 bond on a federal charge of unlawful flight to escape prosecution for murder and thus may be rushed back without the formality of extraditing him.

Had Been Held In Jail.

Long sought as the killer, Bowers escaped the nationwide net because he had been in jail here under an assumed name since four days after the killing.

Arrested as a petty thief and vagrant he gave the name of George Francis Lewis but was finally identified through his fingerprints that were forwarded to the bureau of identification in Washington.

President's Budget Message Presented

Declining Revenues Prevent Expected Effort At Balancing Budget

Relief And Defense Appropriations Also Must Be Increased

By ERIC FRIEDHEIM
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5.—Necessity for strengthening the national defense and providing relief in the face of declining revenues will result in a $949,600,000 federal deficit for the 1939 fiscal year, President Roosevelt told congress today in his annual budget message.

Forced by the current business recession to revise downward the government's revenue estimates, Mr. Roosevelt nevertheless moved to execute his promise "not to let the people down" by calling for a new relief appropriation of $1,000,000,000. This fund is to be used during the next fiscal year which starts July 1. The president emphasized however, if the need arises he will ask congress for more. He said this applies also to the present fiscal year although no additional relief money was asked for this period.

Budget Figures

Summarized, the president's budget statement said:

1.—Revenues for the next fiscal year will total $5,919,400,000, a decrease of $401,076,000 from the present fiscal year.

2.—Expenditures, exclusive of debt retirements, will total $6,889,000,000, a decrease of $539,600,000 from the present fiscal year.

3.—National defense appropriations will total $991,300,000, an increase of $34,300,000. Later the president may ask for additional funds to construct several extra naval vessels.

4.—Relief expenditures for the next fiscal year will total roughly $1,138,304,000, a decrease of $841,000,000 from the present fiscal year. (Continued On Page Two)

(International News Service)

STAMFORD, Conn., Jan. 5.—Refusing to halt at a policeman's call, one Providence, R. I., youth was shot and killed and another wounded when Darien police pursued a reported stolen automobile across the city line into Stamford today.

Harry Smith, 18, died in the car, and Angelo Lalkas, 20, driver, was wounded. Lalkas gave his address as 188 Cary street, Providence, according to police.

Swallows Poison, Dies In Bushes

Former Expert Transit Executive Dies In Obscurity In Philadelphia

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 5.—Despondency was blamed today for the suicide of Willis C. Dunbar, 56, one-time nationally known transit expert who drifted into obscurity after relinquishing the presidency of the Philadelphia Rapid Transit company ten years ago.

Dunbar swallowed poison and died in a clump of bushes near a desert-manufacturing plant here. A note, addressed to his second wife, said: "It is sad news for me to write this. You have lived an unhappy, friendless life. You married a failure. You can never hold up your chin in Detroit."

Extra U. S. Grant Given For Library

Appropriation of an additional grant of federal money to complete the renovation of New Castle's new free public library, was announced today by Attorney Clarence A. Patterson, member of the library board of trustees.

"We've been given enough to finish the job," Mr. Patterson reported today. He said the work will go right ahead.

For several days the library work was temporarily halted because the original grant was exhausted.

Conductor Is Killed In Fall

John C. McKenna, Of Painesville, O., Falls Through Trestle Here This Morning

ACCIDENT OCCURS IN SEVENTH WARD

John C. McKenna, aged 69, B. and O. freight conductor was instantly killed at 5:07 a. m. today, when he was jolted from the front platform of a caboose and fell through the trestle passing over the tracks of the Pennsylvania Railroad, about 500 yards east of the Seventh ward station. Death is believed to have resulted from a broken neck and other injuries.

The train, of which Mr. McKenna was in charge, was operating between Painesville, O., and New Castle Junction, and had stopped for the block just north of New Castle Junction, awaiting orders to proceed into the yards.

R. G. Stanhope, flagman on the train, was standing on the rear platform, and noticed Mr. McKenna's fall. He did not know that Mr. McKenna had fallen with it, but on investigating, found him missing, and went back to look for him, but could not find him.

Harry Elwell Is In Hospital From Mystery Injury

Suffers Possible Fracture of Leg In Unusual Occurrence Early Today

City detectives today had another mystery on their hands, that in which Harry Elwell, was injured early this morning at West Washington street and Miller avenue, Union township. He is in the New Castle hospital, suffering from a possibly fractured leg.

According to reports, Elwell left his employment place at 2 a. m. and walked through West Washington street, enroute to his home, which is in Grandview avenue, Union township.

He was given a "lift", according to his story, by two men in a automobile, one of whom gave him a cigarette.

He smoked the cigarette he reported, then "passed out". When he regained consciousness he was lying on the ground at West Washington street and Miller avenue.

Although he had a possibly fractured leg, despite agonizing pain, he managed to reach his home. A physician was called and Elwell was taken to the New Castle hospital.

Campbell, Ohio, Boy Is Killed

Companion Relates Sobbingly Story Of Accidental Shooting In Home

(International News Service)

CAMPBELL, O., Jan. 5.—A 15-year-old Campbell boy today sobbed out details of an accidental shooting that cost the life of his playmate, Charles Vernable, 14.

The grief-stricken lad related he called Charles into his home to offer him candy. After sharing it, they wandered about the house, and found the older boy's revolver. It was accidentally discharged, and Charles fell to the floor, a bullet in his head.

Charles died hours later in a hospital. Police Chief Frank Cunningham withheld the other boy's name.

BOY IS WOUNDED

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 5.—An unknown assailant who shot a 17-year-old boy, John Martino, as he sat in his home at Renton yesterday evening was sought today. He was shot through the abdomen as he sat with members of his family in the kitchen.

Ford Chief's Daughter Elopes

RUSSELL HUGHES

Elopement of Trudie Bennett, 17-year-old daughter of Harry Bennett, personnel director of the Ford Motor company, caused a stir for a day after her disappearance from Michigan State Normal college, Ypsilanti, Mich. First rumors were that she had been abducted. Then it was learned she had eloped to Auburn, Ind., with Russell Hughes, 21, fellow student—and they were married.

Filing Of Compensation Claims Rush About Over

The grand rush of New Castle's unemployed residents to file claims for weekly payments under the state's new unemployment compensation law was about over today—and the lines of filers indicated it.

A checkup revealed 1,184 persons filed claims a the central filing point in the American Legion recreation rooms, Neshaunock avenue, on Tuesday. The total city filers for Monday and Tuesday numbered 2,450.

Out in the county districts the filers also slowed up yesterday—85 at Ellwood City but only nine in Bessemer.

Harold J. Mehl, administrative assistant, and Archie Gordon, heading the employment division of the local state office, agreed that "the biggest part of the job is over."

A corps of typists at the Citizens Bank building headquarters were copying hundreds of the claims for forwarding to Harrisburg offices.

"Our employment work is going right ahead as usual," Mr. Mehl said. "That's the main job here—and we're maintaining that function along with the special claim filing work."

Tuesday saw a total of 5,095 file claims in Lawrence, Beaver, Mercer and Butler counties, the areas which constitutes district 5, officials said. The two-day filing total for the district was over 11,000.

Lines of filers at the American Legion rooms here today were small compared to those of yesterday and Monday. Claims will be received there until further notice.

Airplane Contest Backed By Lions

Club Hears Model Plane Builders And Then Votes City Show

New Castle's Lions club will sponsor a city-wide model airplane contest for the city's boys in the spring.

The club approved the contest after three Union township schoolboys, James Dean, Harold Wright and Eugene Kerr, members of that school's Aviation club, spoke at its luncheon yesterday. They told the clubmen of model airplanes of all kinds and exhibited plans of different kinds.

Supervising principal, Jay G. Rudolph of Union township, a member of the Lions, was the program sponsor.

Members of the executive committee said that 75 per cent of the state federation was comprised of units affiliated with John L. Lewis' CIO. A special convention has been called for January 15 in Harrisburg to consider Green's order.

The Washington delegation was led by John Phillips, state president; John Kmetz of Pittsburgh, H. L. Woodmansee of Philadelphia, William Cooney of Oilpanth, Andrew P. Bover of Reading, Lawrence J. Katz of Harrisburg and Lester Thomas, secretary.

Fourth Baby For Mrs. Bing Crosby

(International News Service)

HOLLYWOOD, Jan. 5.—There was another potential crooner in the Bing Crosby family today.

His wife, Dixie Lee Crosby, presented the singer-actor with a six-pound son at the Cedars of Lebanon hospital, the fourth to be born to the couple.

"I've got to think up a brand new lullaby to sing to him," Bing said as he quit his nervous pacing of the floor to receive congratulations.

James M. Hughes Taken By Death

Death Comes Today To Prominent Educator After Lengthy Illness

PRINCIPAL HERE FOR MANY YEARS

James Mason Hughes, one of Lawrence county's most beloved educators, principal of the Lincoln and Garfield and Pollock schools for 23 years, died at his residence in Shenango township at 1 o'clock this morning.

Several months ago Mr. Hughes fell from a tree on his farm upon being stricken by apoplexy and since that time he had been confined to bed in a critical condition.

Upon learning of his death this morning, Dr. C. C. Green, superintendent of the New Castle schools, said:

"In the passing of James M. Hughes New Castle has lost a great character and valuable public servant."

"As principal of the Lincoln and Garfield and the Pollock schools for many years Mr. Hughes was an inspiration to thousands of boys and girls for good citizenship and successful living."

"He was loved by his associates in the public schools and respected by the community he served."

"Personally, I have lost a most loyal friend and co-worker."

Mr. Hughes, born in Mercer, son of John and Mary Elizabeth Ketter Hughes, came to Lawrence county as a young man and for 11 years taught in the rural schools. He then was named principal of the South New Castle Boro school and remained in that position for five years.

When Dr. Ben G. Graham resigned as superintendent of the New Castle Schools to go to Pittsburgh, Prof. Hughes was made acting superintendent, serving from January 1, 1926 to May 4 of the same year when Dr. Green took over the work.

Since 1909 Prof. Hughes was principal of the two schools on the South Side. Because of his illness he was absent from his office this term for the first time.

He was a member of Trinity Episcopal church. (Continued On Page Two)

Wolves' Party Attracts Crowd

Cathedral Is Scene Of Ninth Annual Dinner And Party Tuesday Night

Headlining New Castle's social calendar Tuesday evening was the ninth annual Wolves club dinner and dance held in the ballroom of the Cathedral. Approximately 250 persons gathered for the gala occasion which was a marked success from every standpoint.

A delicious six course dinner was served at the start of the event. Blessing was asked by Rev. Nicholas Biondi, a student at St. Vincent's college, Latrobe. Carm Sacco introduced James Lombardo, new president of the Wolves. A Pittsburgh company entertained with a delightful floor show.

Dancing was in vogue until a late hour. Novelties of all descriptions were dispensed among the crowd.

The entertainment committee, Angelo J. Casaccia, Dr. John Prioletti and Al Siera, arranged the program.

On Tuesday evening, January 18, in the Elks club, the Wolves will install 1938 officers.

President Will Name Another Court Justice

Resignation Of Justice Sutherland Creates Vacancy Among Conservatives

WILL LEAVE BENCH ABOUT JANUARY 16

Justice Announces Intention To Quit As Result Of Recurrent Illness

(BULLETIN)

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5.—Another appointment to the United States supreme court fell to President Roosevelt today when Associate Justice George Sutherland announced his intention to retire from the high bench on Jan. 16.

Justice Sutherland advanced the only reason for his leaving the bench as his advancing years—nearing 76—and the recurrence of a stomach ailment from which he has suffered intermittently for many years.

Thus he follows into retirement another conservative of the court, Associate Justice Willis VanDevanter, who was the first of the justices to take advantage of the retirement law enacted last summer, which permits them to quit with full pay of $20,000 a year.

Announces Retirement

Washington, Jan. 5.—Associate Justice George Sutherland, 76, today announced his intention of retiring from the supreme court. He fixed the effective date as Jan. 16.

Long known as one of the most conservative justices on the bench, Justice Sutherland thus follows the precedent of Associate Justice Willis Van Devanter.

Missing Couple Now Identified

Mr. And Mrs. D. L. Robinson Are Mysterious Mr. And Mrs. A. A. Rubens Of New York

(International News Service)

MOSCOW, Jan. 5.—Mr. and Mrs. Donald L. Robinson, the mysterious couple who disappeared from their Moscow hotel some weeks ago, were officially identified today as the equally mysterious Adolph A. Rubens and his wife who dropped from sight in New York.

The identification was made by officials of the United States embassy.

Positive Identification.

(Editor's note: The identification apparently removed all doubt that at least the woman who disappeared while staying in Moscow under the name of Ruth Robinson, is an American citizen, and thus will have the privilege of consulting with United States officials even if guilty of entering Soviet Russia with a fraudulent passport.)

Whether the couple was still alive or had already been convicted and executed on charges of conspiracy, as often rumored, was not disclosed immediately.

Mrs. Rubens is known to have been an American. She was born in the Germantown section of Philadelphia, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Boerger, who are now in Miami. Rubens came from Latvia.

The tinsel is gone and the greenery, the lights and the colored stars, but the place is littered as it has been with scooters and bikes and cars. The tree is down and is tossed away, and some of the toys are bent, but all in all it was well worth while for the time and the money spent. For Christmas is over now definitely, but the spirit should linger on, until another one rolls around, the weather is forty-one.

DAVISON-LINTON
MARRIAGE REVEALED

New Castle friends will be interested to learn of the marriage of Miss Lenora Davison of Meadville, and Fred E. Linton of New Wilmington, which took place Saturday, January 1, 1938.

The vows were exchanged in the parsonage of the Grace M. E. church, Meadville, at eleven o'clock, with the Rev. Braun officiating. Mr. and Mrs. David Morris of Franklin were the only attendants.

The bride wore a gown of hunter green transparent velvet, with green and metallic accessories, and her corsage was of yellow roses and sweet peas. Her attendant was gowned in black crepe, with black and silver accessories. She wore a corsage of pink roses and sweet peas.

Following a short wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Linton returned to Meadville, and are at home to their many friends at 764 Kennedy street, Meadville.

A. B. D. GIRLS MEET
AT HAROLD HECK HOME

Members of the A. B. D. Girls, were delightfully entertained in the Moody avenue home of Mrs. Harold Heck, Tuesday evening. Mrs. Ralph Ramsey was in charge of the devotional period.

Of special interest, was the detailed account given by Miss Eleanor Anderson and Mrs. Ralph Ramsey, concerning the work their organization has done each year for the Alms Home. Attention was drawn to the fact, that the Christmas tree which they donated and trimmed, last week, marked the twenty-fourth consecutive year they have carried out this particular occasion. During the Yuletide season each year, the associates make elaborate plans for this event, in which all participate.

Miss Jessie Wilson reviewed the fifth chapter of their study book "New Africa" and afterwards, Mrs. Eugene Kennedy gave a geographical sketch of "British, South Africa."

Their guest speaker, S. De Graff Pearson was introduced. He gave a talk on his trip to Canada, telling of his personal visit with the famous Dr. Dafoe. Also, he gave an interesting description of castles in England.

An informal social period concluded activities, with co-hostesses in charge. They were, Mrs. Harold Heck, Mrs. Ralph Ramsey, Mrs. Eugene Kennedy and Miss Jessie Wilson.

The next assembly will take place, Tuesday, February 1.

BRIDE AND GROOM TO RESIDE IN ELLWOOD

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde W. Carr, nee Dorothy Grace Cooper, will take up residence on First avenue in Ellwood City after January 7, their marriage having taken place on December 25, at Wellsburg, West Va. The Rev. Paul W. Nester, pastor of St. James' Lutheran church of that vicinity officiated at 11:15 o'clock in the morning.

The bride is the daughter of H. T. Cooper of 421 Meyer avenue, graduated from New Castle High school in the January class of '36. She has been affiliated in the offices of the Carnegie-Illinois Corporation here for the past year and a half. Mr. Carr is manager of the A. and P. store on North street in Ellwood City.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Carr are well known here, and their friends will read with interest, of their marriage.

MEN'S GARDEN CLUB
HAS GUEST SPEAKER

The first meeting of 1938 for the Men's Garden club, took place Tuesday evening in the Lindner home on East Washington street. A good attendance greeted their guest speaker William Williams.

Mr. Williams gave a talk on "Summer and Winter Care Of Landscape Gardens". He touched on the spraying care necessary, and other facts that proved highly educational to the membership. A general discussion followed.

Plans were formed for a hike to Gaston Park, to take place on January 16.

Their next regular meeting will be at the James W. Fullerton home at Mt. Jackson, February 1. On the latter occasion, wives will be special guests.

JOLLY TWELVE CLUB
HAS ANNIVERSARY

A chicken dinner was the medium of celebrating their 14th anniversary for members of the Jolly Twelve club on Tuesday evening. At 6:30 o'clock, a delicious dinner was served the group in a downtown tea room.

The hours following were spent informally. Cards were featured, honors going to Mrs. Joseph Perkins and Mr. Albert Perkins.

Beginning another year's activities, the group will meet on January 6 at the home of Mrs. L. W. Houk, Raymond street.

S. E. B. CLASS PARTY
AT ANDERSON HOME

Most delightful in every detail, was the party held Monday evening in the home of Mrs. J. H. Anderson on Highland avenue, for members of the S. E. B. class of the First Methodist church. She had as co-hostesses, Mrs. W. L. Beal, Mrs. J. H. Carpenter and Mrs. Ernest Griner.

In the absence of their president, Mrs. Ida Hamilton, who is sojourning in California, the usual business routine was dispensed with. An informal social time was featured.

Mrs. Roy Miller opened activities with devotionals. Delicious refreshments were a later pleasure, and afterwards, the group rounded out their meeting for January 7. Mrs. J. H. McClelland of Euclid avenue will open her home on this date to the group.

Celebrate Anniversary

The home of Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Altman, Croton avenue was the scene of a merry gathering on New Year's Day when they celebrated their 48th wedding anniversary. The event was also the medium for celebrating Mrs. Altman's birthday anniversary.

Bingo, music, singing and dancing whiled away the afternoon and evening hours. At six o'clock, a bountiful dinner was served the children and grandchildren, numbering 31.

Lodge Meeting. Martha Washington Lodge No. 24, L. O. L., will have its regular meeting on Friday evening. All other Orange lodges have been invited to attend.

The Martha Washington lodge, which formerly met in the Malta hall, will now meet in the Woodmen hall.

Y. L. B. Class Meets.

Members of the Y. L. B. class, Third U. P. church, met in the church on Tuesday evening after church services. Mrs. Carrie McClelland was in charge of devotionals and Mrs. Earl McKnight in charge of the business session in the absence of the president.

Afterwards a program was presented in charge of Mrs. Harvey Kennedy. Donna Jean Kennedy entertained the group with a recitation and Earl Swogger entertained with several accordion selections. A delicious lunch was served by section D of the class.

1931 Glendale Club. Mrs. Clyde Nicholson, Hillcrest avenue, will entertain members of the 1931 Glendale Bridge club on Thursday evening in her home.

DEMOCRACY'S SAFEGUARD

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT'S advocacy of a stronger navy comes at a moment when the American people are increasingly aware of the war threat. Unwarranted sinking of the Panay in Oriental waters has only served to emphasize the need of defensive strength.

The prestige of the United States cannot be maintained unless the country is prepared to uphold its ideals and principles with armed force. Dictators and imperialists are always quick to infer national weakness when a nation allows its powers of defense to deteriorate.

Of course, America need not assume the role of strutting swashbuckler in order to provide the naval facilities essential to the upholding of a vigorous, though friendly, foreign policy. But, in a world which seems to recognize no authority other than that of the mailed fist, it is desirable that the United States shall keep its sea forces up to a reasonable level of gross tonnage and tactical efficiency.

To this latter extent, the president will enjoy general support in spite of the fact that the American people oppose militant action with virtual unanimity. No self-respecting nation, however pacific, would willingly permit itself to become an object target for the pot-shots of foreign jingoists.

An American navy equal to the emergency demands of a war-torn world motivated by greed and acquisitiveness will be widely regarded as an objective not at all inconsistent with the democratic quest for permanent peace and as a safeguard of democracy itself.

THE BOLERO

At the age of 62, Maurice Ravel, the French composer, has written his last melody and is no more upon this troubled earth, but as long as the art of music exists at least one of his compositions will always be played.

The "Bolero" proved to be his most popular work. It was played with such frequency and in so many devious forms, not excluding the musical saw, that it is entirely possible that he grew to hate the rhythmic beat of the Spanish dance. There has not been a symphonic composition that can compare in popularity with it. It was played in a score of countries, it invaded the vaudeville stage, the music hall and the concert auditorium.

Hollywood made a picture around the song and dancers interpreted it with varying degrees of success. Men on the street whistled it and children mumbled the melody in a chanting voice. For a time the world went Bolero-mad.

Ravel wrote better things than the "Bolero." His "Daphnis and Chloe" is far better and his string quartet in F surpasses it in musical craftsmanship, yet the "Bolero" is the song that has been taken up by the masses, and it seems destined that it will remain alive simply because it has become a folk-song.

This ironic conclusion has troubled other artists. John Massfield became heartily sick of one of his poems that had something to do with going down to the sea in ships, and W. B. Yeats, the Irish poet, grew to detest one of his poems because of the ever-increasing number of times it was included in anthologies and declaimed from the platform. And death will not change nor alter this curious circumstance.

NEWS FROM DOORN

In the news of the day there is a brief report from Doorn, the Netherlands, of an impending event which would have been a matter of great international interest and import a quarter of a century ago, when kings and princes, purple and ermine, sceptres and crowns, were among the tangles of life.

The report says that an old man named Wilhelm Hohenzollern has given his consent to the marriage of his grandson, Prince Louis Ferdinand, second in line of succession to the non-existent German Imperial throne, to the Grand Duchess Kira, second daughter to the Grand Duke Cyril, pretender to the non-existent Czarist throne of Russia.

All that is left of the ancient dynasties of the Hohenzollerns and the Romanoffs, it seems, is a small collection of high titles and have a meaningless ring in a world strangely altered since Wilhelm and Nicholas were masters of the destinies of millions. Now a former Austrian house painter and a Georgian peasant occupy the seats of the mighty.

This transformation of circumstances does not necessarily imply that the romance in which the children of pretenders are the principals is lacking in any vital essential. No doubt they are as happy in their anticipation of the future as if they were to be married amid the splendor of the order that existed before the world went to war and thrones fell tumbling in the ruins.

WAR IS DECLARED

Do you want to be a public-spirited citizen? If you do, then take part in the war against pneumonia which has been declared by health leaders and help wipe out the disease which is taking an appalling toll in human lives.

Participation in this war is by no means difficult. Here are a few means of enlisting in the battle:

Don't sneeze or cough in public unless you cover your nose or mouth with a handkerchief.

If you feel a cold coming on, consult a doctor and follow his orders. Don't take needless chances; get plenty of rest and fresh air.

Don't wait until you get a cold before you act. Keep in proper condition so that you may resist the germs that cause colds which may turn into pneumonia.

Agencies conducting this campaign have adopted a battle cry that should find response from everybody. "Keep alive. Winter brings the contagious common cold—then pneumonia" is the slogan that keynotes the campaign.

Hundreds of lives are taken each month by pneumonia, which is placed high on the list of "public health enemies." Cooperation of the public in trying to prevent and cure the disease will bring untold returns.

H. G. Wells, one of our major prophets, sees no major war before 1940. The Chinese will be interested to know this.

The Parent Problem

By Garry C. Myers, Ph. D.

EX-TEACHERS HAVE PROBLEMS

A surprisingly large number of letters come from mothers who once were teachers or nurses. Usually their problems are with stubbornness, especially at from three to five, sometimes called the stubborn age; or of inability to win co-operation of an older child. Practically always these parents tell of their marked success in the building early routine habits in the infant, such as those related to food, elimination and sleep. Also they say they succeed early in establishing the unambiguous meaning of "No."

You see the teacher and nurse, especially the nurse, had good practice for training the child in routines, and their standards are very high. But neither may have acquired skill at cultivating co-operation in the child. They were used to having their rules and commands obeyed, of never surrendering. The teachers could easily enforce their rules at school without much apparent coercion. She had the psychology of the group of other children to aid her. Besides what the group did came to be the thing for each individual child to do. In the average home there is no such group of the same age to utilize for managing an individual child. This fact many teachers forget when they criticize parents.

What many an ex-nurse or school teacher mother needs to learn is the art of winning the child's cooperation, beginning very early. She

I'm appointing myself spokesmen for all the other husbands in the world whose wives think it's nice to have candles on the dinner table. I may be taking in to much territory, but I'm sure that very few of them like candles on the table, either.

Not that I have anything against candles, as candles. There have been times when a candle was one of the most precious things in the world. I refer to that time some years ago when a lot of present-day husbands lived in caves and dug-outs during the war and illuminated their horrible holes with candles. Crawled under blankets without troubling to undress, read letters from home by the flicker of a candle, knew that as long as the candle was burning the rats would stay away. Candles

Jackson Or Ickes As Choice.
Convention Split Is Foreseen.
Loss In China Viewed As Total.By LESLIE EICHEL,
Central Press Columnist

TWO MEN have voiced the administration's opinions in sharp blasts—Robert H. Jackson, assistant attorney general, and Harold L. Ickes, secretary of the interior. Now commentators are puzzled as to which of these two is "favored" by President Roosevelt as his successor.

Jackson, much younger than Ickes, and from the highly desirable state of New York, is presumed to be the heir-designate. He is said to be the choice, or hope, of New Dealers for the 1938 gubernatorial nomination in New York. Ickes, from Illinois, third most desirable state (the order is New York, Pennsylvania, Illinois) is a more experienced political fighter, but at times he gets on the president's nerves. He has been said to have also got on other people's nerves. But he is a power among the liberals, Republicans ever more so than Democrats, and he is better known than Jackson.

Jackson, nevertheless, has the prospect of increasing vitality, and if he appears in the nation's headlines much more, will begin to be on people's tongues. If he is to be the administration's "true" huster in fact as well as in speech, then he may become a figure with whom the regular Democrats will have to reckon.

Jackson will be 46 on Feb. 13; Ickes will be 64 on March 15.

CONVENTION SPLIT?
Incidentally, the 1940 Democratic convention may see a terrific contest between the New Dealers and the regulars. If the New Dealers win, the regulars may walk out. That, however, may not have much bearing on the final tally of votes at the election. But it would result in the realignment that everybody predicts—of liberals in one party and conservatives in another.

"RAD" REPORT ON A. T. &amp; T.?

There are rumors of a report, to be made probably in February, on the American Telephone & Telegraph Co. by the Federal Communications commission, which will term A. T. & T. as a "vicious monopoly" and recommending congressional action.

There is no question that it is monopoly, but the question is asked: What can be done except to bring about government ownership? Which is about the last thing this administration desires at the moment. It has its hands full with government projects now.

Stricter federal supervision, of course, will be recommended. A. T. & T. has got beyond state regulation.

HEAVY LOSS IN CHINA
British and American losses in China probably will be "total." Governments and corporations are beginning to realize that now Japan will make it impossible for foreign corporations, other than Japanese, to operate.

More than that, Japan plans to consolidate all the resources of the conquered part of China—an area as large as the United States—and develop those for the exclusive benefit of Japan. Thus Japan will have tremendous new military resources.

It is in the economic field that Japan suffers uncertainty. The Chinese have destroyed many Japanese investments in China. And the Chinese, even when conquered, can persist in boycotts against Japanese goods.

But, as occurred to Koreans in Korea, the "better Chinese" the independent-thinking Chinese will find that no means of earning a living will be open to them, that schools will be closed to their children. The mass of people will be fed and clothed in return for servitude and predominance over the others.

TODAY Is The Day

Copyright 1937 Central PressBy CLARK KINNAIRD

WEDNESDAY, JAN. 5.

Once Upon Jan. 5th—The humorous ballad made famous by school texts, the "Battle of the Kegs," by Francis Hopkinson, had its inspiration 250 years ago today.

Patriots at Bordertown, N. J., filled kegs with dynamite, sent them floating down the Delaware river toward anchored British warships.

One of the kegs struck drifting ice, exploded, and started the British shooting wildly at everything floating in the river. The "battle" continued for 24 hours for the enormous amusement of Americans, who didn't fire a shot, and most particularly of Hopkinson, the Philadelphian, who concluded his long poem: "Such feats they did perform that day."

Against these wicked kegs, sir, That years to come, if they get home, They'll make their boasts and brag, sir."

As far as its effect upon the course of the Revolution was concerned, the event had no significance, for none of the kegs found their mark. But this was the first time that floating mines had been launched against an enemy fleet anywhere. British were quick to adopt the idea themselves.

On Other Jan. 5ths—1833—Eugene Woldemar Hilgard was born in Rheinisch Bavaria. Nebraska observes the birthday of Morton, who originated Arbor Day, but California ignores the more important natal date of Hilgard, who established the first agricultural experiment station in the U. S., while professor of agricultural chemistry at U. of C.

1914—Henry Ford voluntarily became the first industrialist to adopt a minimum wage of $5 a day for all employees.

1925—Wyoming installed Nellie Taylor Ross as the first woman state governor. 21 days later Miriam "Ma" Ferguson became governor of Texas.

Five years ago today—Ex-President Calvin Coolidge died at 60 of coronary thrombosis (blood clot in the heart). Average age at which presidents and ex-presidents die is 68. Only four have ever reached 80 (and all were among the first six chief executives). Our only living ex-president, Hoover, is 63.

This we can state of him, none cared to read base of him.

None ever left him with pain in his heart.

This can be said of him; none lived in dread of him.

He scoffed at nobody just to be smart.

None in vulgarity spoke in disparity.

Calling him names that we commonly hear.

Nobody jeered at him; nobody sneered at him.

No one was worse off for having him near.

Brave was the heart of him; kindness a part of him.

True to his faith and his fellows he stayed;

None could recall of him traits that were small of him.

None had been hurt by the blunders he made.

This we can say of him over the clay of him.

God will be proud to receive him again.

A Farmer For President

(From Topeka, Kansas, Daily State Journal)

A boom for president is growing around the interesting figure of Louis J. Taber, of Ohio, the national master of the Grange. It isn't a mushroom affair. Mr. Taber has been re-elected by unanimous choice every year for fourteen years as master of the national Grange. His position has made him an important figure in the legislation of the country during these trying years, because he has openly represented the attitude of a very large body of farmers.

His reputation for genuine statesmanship grew tremendously during the recent fight on the president's supreme court proposal. When the project was first launched by the president, Mr. Taber called an emergency meeting of the executive committee of his powerful organization and induced the Grange to throw the entire strength of the order against the proposal to pack the court. The executive committee of the Grange, their important publications and their radio hour forces were all used in the effort to arouse an intelligent appreciation on the part of the farmers touching the president's threat to constitutional government.

It may be remembered by some that when the fight was over and the president's proposal definitely defeated, Senator Borah paid a tribute to Mr. Taber for the very fine contribution he had made to the forces which had headed off the movement.

Mr. Taber was successful, as he has been for fourteen years, in keeping his efforts from being identified with party politics. In a very special way, it was the attitude of the farmers themselves without respect to partisanship, upon the subject of packing the supreme court.

The present feeling that is rising in the Republican party that Mr. Taber would be a suitable candidate for the head of the general recognition of his talents and not from any organized effort that is being made either by himself or the Grange to introduce him as a political figure.

We are always giving a generous amount of attention to the farmer and his needs, but since the days of George Washington we haven't thought to nominate a farmer for president of the United States. Mr. Taber is not only a successful farmer leader, he is a successful farmer whose entire energies have been devoted to agriculture.

Flood Control Program Start Strongly Urged

Six-Point Program For Proposed Red Bank, Mahoning And French Creek

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, Jan. 5.—A six-point flood control program for 1938 headed by a demand for immediate construction of the proposed Red Bank, Mahoning and French Creek reservoir projects was announced today by H. B. Kirkpatrick, chairman of the citizens' flood committee, and State Senator W. B. Rodgers, president of the tri-state authority.

The program also called for continued supervision of flood control work by U. S. Army engineers.

The program:

1. Start of construction of the Red Bank, Mahoning and French Creek reservoirs in the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1938.
2. An adequate appropriation for this work by the 1938 congress.
3. Provision of money to finance land and damage costs, either from the state flood control fund appropriated last year or from a new legislative appropriation if a special session of the legislature is called.
4. Continuance of the corps of engineers, U. S. Army, as the agency in charge of planning and constructing flood control projects.
5. Dedication of the projects to the primary purpose of flood control, with neither the generation of hydro-electricity nor other possible collateral uses permitted to interfere in any way with flood control.
6. Enlistment of state-wide support in behalf of the state's $50,000,000 flood control bond issue expected to be voted on in November, 1938.

Falls To Death While Removing Cleveland Tree

(International News Service)
CLEVELAND, Jan. 5.—Lewis R. Sando, 47, was dead Tuesday killed by a Christmas tree.

Sando died a few hours after he was taken to Charity hospital suffering from a fractured skull received when he fell with the 75-foot Christmas tree on Public Square here. He had climbed the tree, which he and two other workmen were dismantling, when it fell.

Eighteen New Homes Erected

Construction during 1937 cost $439,705.00, according to statistics compiled by Neal Williams, city bureau of building. Construction in 1936, cost $186,225.00.

Of the $439,705.00, there was for new construction $340,565.00. Included in the latter figure was the cost of 18 new homes. In 1936, only seven new homes were built.

Spinsters Had $10,000 But Still Accepted Charity

Two Women Aged In Nineties Found Hoarding Money In Home

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 5.—A $10,000 fortune—most of it accumulated from contributions received from relief societies for more than 30 years—was ripped to light today in the drab two rooms of the Hale sisters.

Olivia and Roberta Hale, both in their nineties and the proud daughters of Patrick Henry Hale, of Virginia, a fighter for the Confederacy, had been considered destitute for 30 years or more when they first appeared for help.

Discovered By Workers
Discovery of their fortune was made when a worker of the southern relief society, which has been giving them $40 monthly for many years, found they needed immediate hospital attention. Olivia had an infected leg and both she and her sister were half-starved.

Investigation disclosed the two spinsters lived in the cheapest of flats, bought only the bare necessities to subsist, and hoarded every dollar they did not spend. Most of the money was found in the envelopes which contained the relief checks. The sisters always cashed their checks promptly.

Some of the money was in the type of currency issued immediately after the Civil War. This caused investigators to believe the sisters always had this post-Civil war currency but escaped spending it by applying for relief.

NEW GALILEE

SURPRISE PARTY
Miss Mabel Duncan was pleasantly surprised Tuesday evening when she found a large number of friends gathered in her home to help her celebrate her sixteenth birthday anniversary.

The hours were spent in playing games and music and at a late hour, delicious refreshments were served. Miss Duncan received a number of lovely gifts.

BIRTH ANNOUNCEMENTS
Friends here have received word of the birth of a daughter, named Patricia Elizabeth, on December 26 to Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Bolt, of Saratoga Springs, N. Y. Mrs. Bolt will be remembered as the former Miss Miriam Fick, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. L. W. Fick, former Nazarene pastor here.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Freed, of the Koppel-New Galilee road, announce the birth of a son on January 1.

MISSIONARY MEETING
The Woman's Missionary Society, of the Church of the Nazarene, will hold their January meeting on Thursday, January 6, at the home of Mrs. Lula Martsoff. Mrs. A. W. Tanner will be devotional leader.

NEW GALILEE NOTES
Harold Martsoff is confined to his home by illness.

Orville Shuster spent New Year's Day in Petersburg, O.

Miss Mary Jane Elliott is confined to her home by illness.

Mrs. Flora Burnside and grandson, Donnie Wheeler, and Mrs. Carl

Cunningham, of New Castle, spent Sunday afternoon at the A. W. Tanner home.

Miss Nannie Moore, who has been confined to her home by illness, is slowly improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Keebler, of Dearborn, Mich., have returned to their home after visiting relatives here.

Rev. and Mrs. William Fellow and family have returned from Pittsburgh where they spent New Year's Day.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Hixson, Miss Mary Dryden and Mrs. A. W. Tanner and Edna motored to Youngstown, O., Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Jenkins entertained the following at dinner on New Year's Day: Mr. and Mrs. William McAnis and family and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jenkins and sons.

Feet Of Women Getting Bigger

(International News Service)
CHICAGO, Jan. 5.—Cinderella would be a lonesome lass, indeed, in the United States today.

America's American woman now wears a size 7A and her feet are growing no shorter, a size 8, in fact, is becoming commonplace, according to manufacturers at the national shoe fair here.

Still displaying sizes 48 as models, the shoe makers agreed it was a habit held over from generations ago when the average foot was much smaller and still carried on as lure to a purchaser's vanity, with very little chance of them meeting the requirements.

Girls, able to wear the model sizes, were so scarce that the manufacturers had a hard time finding enough mannequins to display them.

Synthetic Vitamin Good For "Hangover"

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, Jan. 5.—Appetite gone since the "morning after" New Year's Eve? Then stop at the nearest drug counter and get a couple of cents worth of synthetic vitamin B 1. A little late but still helpful.

Dr. Norman Jolliffe came today with that recommendation today for the boys who find that celebrating robs them of desire for food.

Dr. Jolliffe's authority on effects of alcohol on the human system and chief of the division of psychiatry of the city department of hospitals, reported that the vitamin treatments have been found helpful in 1,000 cases at Bellevue hospital.

Plenty Of Fluids
Carrying the suggestion still further, Dr. Jolliffe thought it would be a good idea if distillers would add about half a cent's worth of the vitamin to each pint of their product—or the consumer could do it himself and be assured that whatever else this liquor might do to him, it wouldn't rob him of his appetite.

For the plain garden variety of "hangover" with its feeling of "all gone," Dr. Jolliffe suggested "plenty of fluids such as water or milk" and to prevent the next one—"moderation."

Incidentally he warned against the "hair of the dog that bit me" custom. He who finds it necessary to take a "pick me up," the doctor warned, "will find it necessary very soon again to take another one and so on. Better in the long run to leave liquor alone when you need it and take your drinks when you don't need them."

Pannell Is Named To State Board

(International News Service)
HARRISBURG, Pa., Jan. 5.—J. Dress Pannell, Harrisburg attorney, Tuesday was named a member of the Pennsylvania Labor Relations Board at $9,000 a year. He succeeds John F. Breslin, resigned.

Pannell, who sought the common pleas court judgeship of Dauphin county in the last election on the Democratic ticket, was defeated by former district attorney of Dauphin county, Carl E. Richards, a Republican.

ANNOUNCE U. S. EXAMS
The United States civil service commission has announced an open competitive examination for the position of student fingerprint classifier in the federal bureau of investigation. ## Close Fiscal 1937 Year With Big Deficit, Public Debt $37,279,291,518

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 5.—The government closed 1937 with a gross deficit of $645,068,770, treasury figures disclosed Tuesday.

In a report on operations for the first half of the 1938 fiscal year, which started July 1, and ended December 31, the treasury disclosed income taxes amounted to $1,157,249,593. During the same period of 1936, income payments totalled only $705,962,977.

Total receipts this year amounted to $3,176,213,515 as compared with $2,158,305,452 for the six months period a year ago.

Expenditures High
Expenditures in the June-December period totalled $3,821,282,285 as against $3,552,829,118 for the same time in 1936. The cost of relief for the past six months has been $1,032,492,851, a decrease of approximately $665,000,000 from the corresponding period a year earlier.

At the close of the year, total gold holdings were valued at $12,759,983,533, of which $1,227,696,322 was in the sterilized fund. The treasury's gold assets were more than half of the world's visible supply of this metal. The monetary value of the government's silver stock approximated $2,800,000,000.

The public debt December 31 was $37,279,291,518. On December 31, 1936, it was $34,408,920,961.

Miss Emily Rice Elected
Commissioner By Council Last Night
MRS. ENGLAND TO SERVE AS DEPUTY

MISS EMILY RICE

Miss Emily C. Rice of 433 Park avenue was elected commissioner of the New Castle Girl Scout organization Tuesday night at the annual meeting of the Girl Scout Council in the Greer building headquarters. Miss Rice succeeds Mrs. C. M. England, who has completed a most progressive term of office and who will serve during the coming year as deputy commissioner.

Miss Helen Wilson was named secretary and Mrs. F. E. Sowersby treasurer. All were inducted into office immediately and took over their duties. Mrs. W. H. Hanger presided as chairman during the election in the absence of Mrs. England, who was ill.

Annual reports were submitted by various committee chairmen. Mrs. Chester T. R. Yeates was welcomed as a new member. Of principal interest to the council just now is the selection of a new director to take over the duties resigned by Miss Eleanor LeFevre because of illness. Council hopes to have a new director by February 1.

Meanwhile the Girl Scout office is open every day except Saturday from 10 a. m. to 5 p. m. with Miss Rita Metz, leader of Troop No. 6, in charge.

SLIPPERY ROCK, Pa., Jan. 5.—Invitations will go out soon to state notables, members of the board of trustees, officials of the department of public instruction and representatives of other teachers' colleges as well as friends and alumni of the college, for the ground-breaking ceremonies in the $1,200,000 building program at the college here, which has been set for Wednesday, January 19. Luncheon will be served in the college dining room at 1 o'clock on that date for the large number of guests. A platform will be erected on the site of the proposed library for the speaking program of the afternoon.

Bids on the major part of the construction work, which includes the new women's dormitory, science hall, high school, library, and president's residence will be opened in Harrisburg Tuesday.

December Was Unusually Cold

Daily Deficiency Of Almost Four Degrees Per Day Is Noted During Month

Local residents probably wonder what happened to their coat pile during December, but a review of weather conditions by U. S. Weather Observer, B. F. Johnson, reveals that there was a daily deficiency of 3.7 degrees from the normal of the month. There was also an excess of precipitation of .48 inches, adding to the year's total, which will be one of the largest in some years, it is believed.

The mean maximum temperature was 35 degrees, the mean minimum was 19.4 degrees, and the mean average per day, 27.2 degrees. The highest temperature was 49 degrees on the 18th and the lowest was one degree on the 14th. The greatest daily range was 29 degrees on December 4. The normal mean for December is 30.9 degrees.

The total precipitation during December was 3.18 inches. The normal for the month is 2.70 inches, an excess of .48 inches being shown. The total snowfall for the month was 4.3 inches. The greatest precipitation occurred on December 18, when 1.19 inches was noted.

Days with .01 inches or more of precipitation were 15, days clear, 4; partly cloudy, 8; cloudy, 19.

In 1936 the precipitation was 37 inches below the normal, but there was twice as much snow, the total being 9.8 inches. In December the mean temperature was 1.9 degrees over the normal.

needs to study the difference between getting him to do what she wants him to do (aside from routines), and keeping him from doing specific things permanently forbidden—to exercise the principle of making pleasant what she wishes the child to do and painful only what she wants him never to do.

(Cultivate Patience)
Therefore she will cultivate endless patience in order to induce the youngster of three to come to her, to bring her the book, to say "please" and "thank you." When she asks this child or an older one to do something for her she will honor his response to her request as if he were an adult. If, therefore, the child chooses not to accede, she will not punish him or tell him he must. She won't even feel angry at him. She made a request which implies a free choice by him. He made the choice. She will just strive harder to set the stage next time so he will choose to comply. When he does she will express warm approval. Furthermore, she practically never will tell this young child to do anything (aside from routines) and rarely will she so command an older child. But she will occasionally command him to cease doing a certain thing and immediately punish him if he fails to obey promptly.

look nice on birthday cakes, too, or inside of pumpkin heads at Halloween, and they shine beautifully on windows at Christmas. . . . And of course they are very pretty on dinner tables, making the women even prettier and the men handsomer.

But—
My idea of the thing to do at a table, aside from friendly conversing, is to eat. And part of the pleasure of eating consists of seeing what you eat. . . . Mine is no champion appetite, but I've been much of a hand at toying with my food. If I like it I eat it, and I want to see it. None of this romantic half-dramatic twelfth century and most of us have electric lights in our homes. We come into a room, press a button and enjoy the finest of modern illumination. It's grand and I like it. In that light I can avoid egg plant and concentrate on steak. I can butter a roll or locate the olives. I don't feel like an Eskimo in an igloo in the long crepuscular darkness of the far north.

And so, without any more gabble, I hereby call upon the husbands of the world to unite in a serious-minded Association Unalterably Opposed to Candles on the Table. I suggest that they meet once a year on Tom Edison's birthday and valiantly campaign against candles on the table. Their efforts will be ineffectual, but at least they will have announced just where they stand!

(Postscript to wives: No, I DON'T think I'm smart!)

(International News Service)

SEATTLE, Wash.—There was no lack of official witnesses when John H. Kallio, 32, had an automobile accident.

Police arrested him charging that he drove his car through a stoplight, collided with a police car and rammed it into a truck. No one was injured, but cars involved were considerably damaged.

Wooden shoes were worn until the beginning of this century in two Pennsylvania communities, Frenchville, Clearfield county, and Germania, Potter county.

Trades-Labor Group Backs Birthday Ball

Assembly Pledges Support; Lauds Roosevelt Report To Congress

Endorsement of New Castle's annual ball honoring President Roosevelt's birthday was voted by the New Castle Trades & Labor Assembly last night. The organization pledged its co-operation to the civic committee in charge and delegated five of its members to constitute a president's ball committee.

The assembly instructed its secretary to hasten a congratulatory letter to President Roosevelt, lauding him for his "state of the nation" message. Letters were instructed sent to local congress representatives, urging their support of all legislation which benefits labor.

The group heard from a special committee that "employment here at the present time is fair."

News Briefs From City Hall

Four persons were arrested by city police during the past 24 hours. All of them were taken into custody for minor offenses and will receive a hearing before Mayor Charles E. McGrath today in police court.

Guido Scarazzo reported to police last night he parked his auto in the rear of 28-30 South Mercer street and someone stole a tuxedo suit of clothing from his automobile.

George Devail, 12 East Division street, informed police he parked his auto last night in South Jefferson street near South street and someone stole a robe and flashlight from it.

Police here have been requested by officials of the Pennsylvania Training school at Morgantown to search for Frank Orlando, Erie, who escaped from the institution yesterday.

Scott Cox, R. D. 2, reported to police his auto and a Green Light Taxicab were in a collision this morning at the intersection of North Jefferson street and Grant street.

Police are yet looking for the possible appearance here of Roy Flicker, who escaped some months ago from the Allegheny county workhouse. He was sentenced to the institution from here for aggravated assault and battery, police say.

TAKE MY WORD FOR IT

Every year for the last thirty years I have shown hundreds of pictures. Most of them please and entertain you, and occasionally let's be honest with each other, a bad one comes along. We can support this theatre and that's why when we have a real treat for you... we want you to know about it. JACKIE COOPER, the boy star, who won your heart in "Skippy," "The Champ," "The Devil Is A Sissy" and other great hits, is starred in a new picture for Monogram, titled "BOY OF THE STREETS", which I have just seen. The folks, believe me, it's a film you'll enjoy, that you'll want to see over again. The story packs suspense and soul-stabbing drama. If you like to cry, to laugh, to thrill... you'll want to see JACKIE COOPER in "BOY OF THE STREETS". Take my word for it... and that word is SWELL!

CHAS. FREEMAN, Mgr.
It will be showing Thursday, Friday, day, Saturday this week in the Cathedral Theatre.
On same program will present Bing Crosby in "I Surrender Dear".

Mrs. John Lewis, of 916 Marshall avenue.

Charles R. Cunningham, of Leasure avenue, was called to McKeesport this morning by the sudden death of his mother, Mrs. M. M. Cunningham, who died early this morning.

Dave Lewis, of 411 East Lutton street, who was struck by an auto on Moravia street, on his way to work, and who has been in the New Castle hospital for several weeks, has returned to his home.

Miss Laura Snider, of North Mercer street, is reported to be getting along "very nicely" today in the Jameson Memorial hospital, where she underwent an operation for appendicitis on Tuesday night.

Word was received here Tuesday by P. P. Alford, of the Harlansburg road, informing him of the death of his son-in-law, W. H. Holcomb, at Redlands, Cal. Interment is to take place Thursday at that place.

Raymond Diehl, formerly of R. F. D. 1, Volant, Pa., but now of Jeannette, Pa., who has been visiting over the New Year's holidays with Mr. and Mrs. Odey Foster, of 628 Raymond street, has returned home.

Miss Leone Broadhead returned on Tuesday to State Teachers' College at West Chester, Pa., to resume her teaching after visiting during the Christmas and New Year's vacation, with her father and sister, Alfred I. Broadhead and Miss Alma Broadhead, of 707 Monroe street.

John (Jimmie) Bunemann, who has been recuperating from an appendicitis operation at the Louis Moretti home on Garfield avenue, was removed to his own residence at 105 1/2 Richelleu avenue, today.

He is getting along splendidly. His brother Harold, who has been ill with scarlet fever, is completely recovered and out of quarantine.

SEVENTH WARD NEWS

Evening Services
Are Well Attended

Dr. John S. Hamilton Conducting Nightly Services At Ward Churches

Many members of both the Mahoningtown Presbyterian church and the Mahoning Methodist church are gathering nightly in the Presbyterian church for special union evangelistic services being conducted by Dr. John S. Hamilton, of Winona Lake, Ind.

Every evening, Dr. Hamilton speaks on a different topic, which so far have proven to be exceedingly interesting to those in attendance. All during this week, these services will be conducted in the Presbyterian church, and beginning on Sunday, January 9, they will be held in the Methodist church. The services will end on Sunday, January 16, having been held two weeks in the ward churches.

Magda Is Sent Back To France

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Jan. 5.—Uncle Sam won his moral turpitude battle against Magda De Fontanges Tuesday when the latter sailed back to France where she shot and wounded Count Charles De Chambrun last March.

James D. C. Murray, attorney for the woman who claims she shot the Count because he broke up her romance with Premier Mussolini, insisted Magda was returning to France to see her ill father. Ellis Island officials said Magda was being deported as had been ordered by federal authorities.

No One Ever Kissed
Her Good Night

Bad breath is death to romance. And bad breath is frequently caused by constipation. Just as headaches, sleeplessness, weakness can be produced by it, or most skin blemishes aggravated by it!

Dr. F. M. Edwards, during his years of practice, treated hundreds of women for constipation and frequently noted that relief sweetened the breath and improved well-being and vitality. For his treatment he used a purely vegetable compound—Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. This laxative is gentle, yet peculiarly effective because it increases the bile flow without shocking the intestinal system.

Help guard against constipation. Use Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. At all druggists, 15c, 30c and 60c.

Make Motor Fuel From Sugar Cane

High Powered Motor Fuel Possible From Sugar Cane Latest Invention

(International News Service)
NEW ORLEANS, La.—American motorists shortly may be riding on the crest of the sugar crop as a result of chemical research by the Louisiana Farm Chemurgic Council.

Experiments of the council have disclosed that the tops of Louisiana's annual crop of approximately 4,490,000 short tons of cane provide a potential source of more than 5,820,000 gallons of industrial alcohol which, mixed with gasoline provides a high powered motor fuel.

In addition to the tops of the cane, black strap molasses and cane bagasse also provide excellent raw materials for industrial alcohol, say experts on the staff of the council, who fix the world's present day needs of industrial alcohol at 1,460,000 gallons.

Cooperating with the state's new program of industrial expansion sponsored by Governor Richard W. Leche, the Farm Chemurgic Council is studying possibilities of utilizing all by-products of sugar cane, one of the state's foremost sources of revenue. Recent research also has developed the fact that citric acid for which the United States is now spending more than $2,000,000 annually in foreign markets also can be made from sugar cane tops.

Introduced to the Western hemisphere by early Jesuit monks, sugar cane was first planted in Louisiana almost two centuries ago. Interwoven with much of the south's most colorful history, the industry today has reached proportions representing more than $200,000,000 in investment. In addition to the annual crop of approximately 385,513 short tons of sugar, the state's cane fields produce more than $8,000,000 of syrup and molasses annually, while mountains of white sugar pour from the refineries here to which a considerable portion of Cuban cane is shipped.

I was ashamed to go to the Doctor!

Little did I realize that most women who have children, suffer from piles (hemorrhoids). My pain became so acute that I was frantic. I couldn't walk, I couldn't sleep, I couldn't sit down. Finally I went to my doctor. He told me that I had hemorrhoids, and recommended a suppository to be used privately at home.

If you suffer as I did, let me recommend that you get a $1.00 box of ZIRIL suppositories containing 12 treatments. This wonderful prescription relieves the agony and torture within a few seconds. No narcotics or harmful drugs, easy to use. Can be depended upon to give you quick comforting relief from pain.

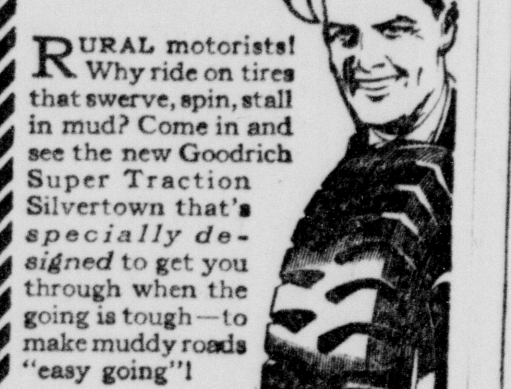

P.S. ZIRIL also comes as an ointment for the relief of itching, minor bleeding and burning of external or protruding piles.

NOW SHE FEELS FULL OF LIFE

Tossed and Rolled All Night Long, Felt Tired and Sluggish During the Day, Until She Tried Vendol, Which Relieved Her Constipation and Changed Her Entire Feelings.

MRS. JOHN SCHWARTZ

"I had a lot of trouble with my nerves and would have a creepy feeling all over my body," says Mrs. John Schwartz, prominent resident of Girard, Ohio, not far from New Castle.

"This nervous condition kept me awake far into the night and I would get up in the morning tired, worn out, and with no energy for the day's work. I was fast becoming a weak, nervous wreck."

"I also suffered from indigestion and seemed as if everything I ate would fill me with gas and I'd feel full and heavy in my stomach. My kidneys were sluggish and I had a nagging backache that made it impossible to stoop over at times."

"I began taking Vendol and the little Vendol laxative tablets and experienced the most glorious relief imaginable. My bowels were clogged with waste matter, due to constipation, but Vendol soon cleansed me out, also acted as a mild diuretic to my kidneys and soon my nerves calmed down wonderfully. I began sleeping restfully, food digested well and the backache left me. I feel full of life now, thanks to Vendol, and want to recommend this fine medicine to everyone who is troubled as I was."

Anyone can relieve constipation, sluggish liver, inactive kidneys and thus improve the digestion, quiet the nerves and increase energy and vitality by taking Vendol, just as this party did. Try it.

Vendol is sold by all leading druggists everywhere and is especially recommended here by New Castle Drug Co. at 35 E. Washington St. and 24 N. Mill St. Schwartz's Pharmacy and Ellwood Cut Rate in Ellwood City, and Weaver's Cut Rate in New Wilmington.

WASHINGTON AT A GLANCE

Jackson Speaks For Roosevelt

Is Natural Choice Of Administration To Sound Anti-Monopoly Keynote

FEEL QUESTION WAS OVERPLAYED

Central Press Washington Bureau, 602 Times-Herald Bldg. By CHARLES P. STEWART, Central Press Columnist

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5.—Assistant Attorney Robert H. Jackson probably was a natural selection for the national administration to make as its anti-monopoly spokesman in connection with its campaign to counteract the economic recession.

He would seem to have been a natural choice because trust busting has been his justice department specialty. He was particularly assigned to it and is an expert at it.

He has plenty of ability and is a forceful talker—well qualified to do justice to any cause he is pleading. If it really is a meritorious one.

Incidentally he is quite generally supposed to be President Roosevelt's preference as his White House successor. Others previously have been similarly mentioned, but Jackson most recently. At all events, he frequently has been suggested as a more-than-possible Democratic nominee at the head of his party's ticket in 1940.

Quite likely the president believed that he was doing him a favor by shoving him into the limelight as its anti-monopolistic orator.

PRESIDENTIAL MOUTHPIECE?

To be sure it is not officially announced that Lawyer Jackson is speaking directly of the administration.

However, it strains the imagination to believe that he would have expressed himself as he has without presidential approval—that he has done so, in short, except as the administration's mouthpiece. He certainly would not last long in the justice department otherwise.

Accordingly, it is taken for granted that he has addressed the country with the Rooseveltian o. k.

IMPROVED CHANCES?

Now, as a matter of fact, has he improved his presidential prospects by availing himself of this particular opportunity?

From comment on Capitol Hill as congress reassembled, I would not think so.

From reactionaries to radicals, the lawmakers' verdict appears to be that Jackson overstressed monopoly.

The reactionaries assuredly are not anti-monopolistic.

The radicals, while anti-monopolistic, consider that there are many other abuses, in addition to monopoly, which need to be attended to—abuses that Lawyer Jackson never referred to, because, in their opinion, such abuses are inherent in the New Deal also.

Briefly, his speeches are described by both sides as "demagogic".

"BIG BUSINESS" ALONE?

Assistant Attorney General Jackson is complained of as having attacked "business".

Jackson says he means "BIG business".

But can he convince "LITTLE business" that he isn't side-swiping it likewise?

Anyway, by reason of the recession, the administration is on the defensive—and the defensive notoriously is the unfavorable position in which to be placed.

"GOOD TIMES" HOPED FOR 1940

It would not be so critical for the administration if it were not for the coming campaign of 1940.

If the administration can engineer an economic revival before the spring primaries, its folk will be re-nominated, and if its candidates are defeated in November, all will be well—for the administration.

It does not follow that all will be well in the long run.

The administration's sole purpose is victory in the primaries and subsequent election.

WHAT CHANCE FOR JACKSON?

Well, is Bob Jackson our best bet? He is being groomed for the job. But he will have to be nominated and elected first.

His program? He had better evolve his own.

Independently, as of the present writing, I should not say that he stood much show.

Two Young New Jersey Girls Calmly Confess Murder During Holdup

(International News Service)

NEWARK, N. J., Jan. 5.—Two youthful gun-girls, one still in her teens, Tuesday confessed the slaying of a bus-driver who resisted their attempt to hold him up two weeks ago, according to police.

Murder charges were promptly placed against Ethel Sohl, 20, and Genevieve Owens, 17, in connection with the fatal shooting of William Barthorst, 26. The latter was killed in a $12 holdup at conclusion of his bus run to nearby Belleville.

Suspicion fell on the girls when, after visiting a probation officer, the Owens girl remarked: "If things don't get better, we'll have to stage a holdup."

She was trailed to the room where she lived with Ethel and a grilling soon elicited the confession, police said.

Johnstown Man Is Found Dead In His Theatre

(International News Service)

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., Jan. 5.—George Panagiotacos, 64, who came to this country from Greece as a boy to seek his fortune and made it only to lose it in old age was found dead in a downtown theater building Tuesday—a suicide.

His body was found in "million dollar" State theater which he had built and on which he had recently received an order to vacate. Three notes he left indicated financial reverses prompted the suicide.

Starting with a candy store, Panagiotacos eventually became the owner of four Johnstown theaters, several candy shops, a restaurant and other valuable real estate.

Deputy coroner John Conway issued a verdict of suicide. A revolver was found near the body.

New Brighton Hi Trips New Castle

Opening Game Of Section Three Goes To Valley Five 27 To 23

Koszela, Carson And Oliver Star In Battle Here, Play Ambridge Next

New Castle High School "Red Devils" basketball team opened the Section Three W. P. I. A. L. season here last night at Washington High by dropping to New Brighton High 27 to 23. The game was exciting in the final few minutes, with New Castle rallying.

The Castles led the first period 4 to 3, but at the half the New Brighton team had taken the lead at 14 to 8. The end of the third period it was 27 to 14 in favor of the visitors, who were led by Carson, Watson and Oliver, this trio getting 22 of the points made by the Timmons coached machine.

New Castle rallies

In the fourth and final period, the New Castle team seemed to come to life and held the New Brighton team scoreless, while the locals dumped in nine points with "Cash" Koszela and Marvin doing the most of the scoring. Had there been more time left the Bridenbaugh team might have made it very miserable for the invaders from the Beaver Valley, but the timers whistle ended the battle with New Castle behind by four points, and so the first section engagement is chalked up on the wrong side of the ledger.

New Brighton has a well balanced team and will not doubt make it tough this year for the other sectional teams. New Castle's next Section Three game will be Friday night and will be at the Ambridge High floor.

The preliminary game was won by the New Castle High Reserves over the New Brighton Reserves 28 to 17.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS' LAND

Bryan Grant, Atlanta, continued his triumphant march in defense of his Miami-Biltmore tennis title yesterday at Coral Gables, in a round of play that resulted in two favorites being forced from the championship lists. The upsets were registered by George Toley of Los Angeles, who beat Charles Harris of West Palm Beach, seeded fifth, and a former Miami-Biltmore titleholder, and Bernie Franks of New York, who measured Wilmer Hines of Hollywood, Calif. It required less than 20 minutes for Grant to eliminate Oscar Evans of Miami, 6-0, 6-1.

Mildred Babe Didrikson has entered the $5,000 Los Angeles golf open, which is scheduled to begin Friday. Harry Cooper, warning up to defend his open title, shot a 68 in North Hollywood on Tuesday.

Thomas H. Doyle, Sharon, well known in steel circles and a member of the Sharon Country club, died yesterday at Sharon after a brief illness. He was 58. He started as a crane boy for the National Mailable and rose to a prominent position with the company. He was a brother of Charles (Chilly) Doyle, Pittsburgh baseball writer.

Glenn Cunningham, apparently as good as ever, as evidenced by his 4:12 mile at New Orleans, Sunday, has entered the Governor's 1,000-yard race at New York City, January 15. He will also race in the 800-meter event to be run at the K. of C. games in Brooklyn, Saturday.

K. Pulaskis Top Bessemer

Score Is 31 To 29 In Fast Game At K. Pulaski Hall, Boron Stars

The K. Pulaskis basketball team handed the Bessemer High Ex-Stars a 31 to 29 defeating last night at the K. P. floor, with "Kitty" Boron, Chernyavski and Hnat, the big stars for the victors. For the losers the work of Vlah and Kurler was the best.

Section Three Will Be Strong

Aliquippa, Ambridge And New Brighton Win Opening Games

The Section Three W. P. I. A. L. basketball race this winter will not doubt prove a very interesting one, judging from the caliber of teams in the circuit this season.

Aliquippa High defeated Ellwood City last night at Aliquippa floor 46 to 24, with Baer and Davies the stars. Ambridge hammered home a 35 to 20 victory over Beaver Falls High with Ziolkowski and Krasulak doing most of the scoring.

New Brighton upset New Castle here 27 to 23. Butler High was idle last night, but will get back into action Friday going to New Brighton. New Castle will play at Ambridge High on Friday night.

Rambling Around In Local Sports World

A. R. Conn expounds about grid rules, the morning man rushed in with a contribution from A. R. Conn, 1701 Hamilton street, sports lover and one of the outstanding golf swingers in the city.

.....since it is imperative that we adhere to the golden rule of journalism—"brevity"—we will present only part of the interesting letter.

Miss Scribbs, let down Mr. Conn's suggestion which is:.....in four quarters of play each team shall be allowed eight fumbles, divided into four (number of quarters) making two to each quarter, kept by the umpire, both teams to be notified when each has the allowed number of fumbles.....the ball shall be put in play at the point where any part of the player's body touches the ground, where the play has been momentarily stopped, where the ball has left the player's hands.....in passes, in laterals or in completion, the ball shall be put in play from the same as above, regardless of where the ball is stopped.....in a pass or lateral, the play shall be put in play from the last point of completion, that is if a play is made and the ball is advanced regardless of yardage or how many players are involved, the ball is put in play at the last point of completion.....that is if a runner goes 20 yards avoids the line of scrimmage goes into the secondary evades tacklers and then hit after advancing, fumbles, the ball shall be put in play from the last point of completion, take the same play and the runner goes into the secondary, laterals to another player, and he in turn runs with the ball making an advance of 10 yards, and fumbles, the ball shall be put in play from the point of completion.....in a pass, the passer evades the blockers, the receiver evades the defense, catches the ball making an advance of yardage and then fumbles, there should be a point of completion somewhere in the progress, here a point of completion should be drawn and a fumble not penalized.

Conn still at bat.....after all a team may advance the ball from their 20, go all the way across the field on successive downs to the opponent's 10 and then when the ball carrier on a line smash try to score, is hit hard and again the physical make-up of the body makes it almost impossible to hold on to the ball because of the force impact, you penalize all the good work of the former plays, and make the game of football a game of chance, after all its hard for a team to recover fumbles.....to make an offense click each man must advance on the defensive team taking care to block out and take players out of play, they can not wait and see whether the ball carrier has held on to the ball, or not, at the right signal they must be on their toes and into the defense, yet again the defense must come into the offensive line and backfield, so the odds are with them in making fumble recovery.....the play not making any yardage is enough of a penalty.....in case of punts, the present fumble rule is in force, if the punt receiver fumbles, there is no play completion, if then the punt receiver catches the ball make an advance and then fumbles their was a play completion, so our new rule would come into force.....the kicker, if he does not make a play completion, the present fumble is intact, that is a bad pass from center, taking too much time in kicking, the line men letting a defensive man on a play, resulting in a non completion of the play.....print this in your column and ask your readers to make comments, on this article, see what they think of it, and you answer questions properly, and maybe you can start something, Yours, A. R. Conn, 1701 Hamilton street, New Castle.

Thank you for the contribution, sorry we can't print the entire letter.

Did you know that.....the World Champions, New York Yankees, start spring training on February 27.....before changing his name, Lou Ambers fought 80 times.....his former handle was Otis Paradise.....the Pittsburgh Panthers played away four times last season and Goldberg was unable to cross touchdown land in any of the tilts.....he did in the Fordham game but the play was called back.....about 15 percent of sports bill every year is chalked up to "golfing equipment".....the New York Yankees and Giants attracted about 2,200,000 customers during the '37 season.

To the readers.....the Rambling Reporter enjoys receiving views, opinions or questions.....only one thing is stressed—brevity. Space does not permit printing long letters.....if you have any suggestions or opinions send them to the Rambling Reporter.

Judge Braham Talks
To Legion Band

Following the rehearsal of the Legion Band on Monday night Judge W. Walter Braham addressed the boys for a short time. The men in charge of the band are arrang- ing to have a prominent citizen speak to the boys each week follow- ing rehearsal, believing that it will be an educational feature for the boys.

It seems we have been missing something at least we did New Year's eve . . . from all reports we hear there was some fancy dress displayed by one of the local Bachelors that night . . . this is off the record but we hear he was dressed in Red and Black P. J.'s . . . now if that is true and we have every reason to believe it is . . . it must have been very amusing . . . wasn't it a little chilly . . . boys will be boys you know.

Here is something you haven't heard for a few weeks at least . . . Music Council . . . well, they are starting out on another venture and this time it is for the sole purpose of raising money to buy New Band uniforms for the Croton Band . . . the parents of these children have decided to do their part in this affair . . . so they have planned a program to be presented Wednesday, January 12th at the Ben Franklin Auditorium . . . it will be made up of music and dancing and from the slant I get now, should prove to be very entertaining . . . the price will be fifteen cents for children and thirty cents for adults . . . the show will start at 8 p. m. and we would like to see the building filled . . . you will hear more details from now on . . . the show is one week from today so keep that night for the Croton Band Benefit Show . . . don't forget . . . Tickets can be bought here at The News or from any leading store in Croton and the East Side . . . just ask for them.

Here is a question that has been bothering this little head for a long time . . . now that Christmas is over and things are rather slack maybe you all will have a little time to think clearly . . . have all eaten Bakers bread . . . the kind that is fermented but three or four hours . . . most of you have eaten Home Baked bread . . . fermented from ten to twelve hours . . . Mother baked hers one hour and the baker bakes his twenty or thirty minutes . . . now which of these two breads do you prefer . . . it seems to me down almost to up . . . people are eating less bread . . . why is that? . . . it's a very serious condition . . . this is a question for a baker, not a newspaper man, but we are interested . . . what is your opinion?

Ellwood Loses Section Opener To Aliquippa

Score 46 To 24; Reserves Continue Undefeated Record, Winning 30 To 20

ELLWOOD CITY, Jan. 5.—Ellwood City high school basketballers journeyed to Aliquippa high school last evening for their sectional opener and returned home on the short side of a 46 to 24 count.

Baer, Aliquippa six foot four inch center, gave the winners their lead in the first period and during the game scored a total of 12 points, five baskets and two free tries, to be the game's high scorer.

In the first period Baer scored three baskets, Moskola one and a foul by Moskola, gave Aliquippa nine points, while Ellwood was held to two free shots, one by Robuck and the other by Bianco.

Beginning the second period Coach Newton sent in his other team and they managed to score 10 points to Aliquippa's 18 in that period. Jones and Stasick scored the local points and Hanshaw, Davies, Baer, Vinich and Woodward, all had a part in the valleyman's score.

Davies, one of last year's basketball flashes of Aliquippa, had his inning in the third period, scoring eight points, with other baskets by Baer and Moskola.

In the last period Fusco, Greco and Jones added nine points for the Ellwood five, and Vinich and Branchetti scored for the winners.

Past passing to men under the baskets and their ability to find the hoops was the keynote to the winner's success. In addition to Baer, Davies was responsible for a goodly number of the winner's points.

Tommy Jones, with nine points, was high for the losers. The reserves fared better than the varsity and continued their undefeated record by topping the Aliquippas 30 to 20 in the preliminary tilt. Rubino and Mack with nine points each were outstanding for Ellwood, followed by Bell with six points.

On Friday evening Beaver Falls high school comes here for the local home opener. They have had a fairly successful preliminary season and will provide plenty of trouble for the Newtonmen.

Get Inquiries On 44-Hour Week

Chamber Of Commerce Secretary Gives Advice To Ellwood City Merchants

ELLWOOD CITY, Jan. 5.—The Chamber of Commerce has had a great many inquiries within the last few days relative to the validity of the laws. Secretary Denny Schill stated today that the female 44 hour law has never been contested and that there is no question about its being valid and therefore merchants should be observing this law at the present time.

In regards to the male 44 hour week Schill stated that the State Department of Labor through its Secretary, Ralph Bashore said that the law was in effect and would be enforced, beginning January 3, regardless of its status.

Schill has been advised, unofficially by employees of the Department of Labor and Industry, that enforcement will not take place until the law is upheld. To place safe the Chamber is advising all merchants to observe the male 44 hour law unless they have entered a protest either in the form of a group protest or individually.

Judge Winklerman of the Dauphin county court will rule on the validity of this law sometime next week.

Zelda Twentier Conducts Meeting Of Women's Club

J. R. Schill And Lowell W. Monroe Are Guest Speakers

ELLWOOD CITY, Jan. 5.—"What We Buy and Sell in Our Town" was the subject for discussion at the dinner meeting of the Business and Professional Women's club held last evening in the First Baptist church dining room.

Miss Zelda Twentier had charge of the program and introduced the various speakers who interestingly and informatively spoke on various phases of the subject.

J. R. Schill, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, was the first speaker and had for his part of the subject "Trade and Business Organizations." He explained the purpose of the Chamber of Commerce and its value to the community and told of the work accomplished by various committees.

Lowell W. Monroe, boro manager, was the second speaker and he had for his subject "Our Boro as a Business Organization." Mr. Monroe spoke on the various phases of boro activities and his address proved to be of value and knowledge to the members.

A delightful feature of the evening was the showing of moving pictures of various interesting scenes and activities taken in Mexico last summer by Miss Elizabeth McKnight, a teacher of the local high school.

The next meeting scheduled for Tuesday, January 18, will be a social affair and will be held in the Baptist church.

Christian Class At Newton Home

ELLWOOD CITY, Jan. 5.—Loyal Women's class members of the First Christian church gathered on Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Herbert Newton, of Fountain avenue, for their January meeting.

Fifteen members and two guests, Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Minnie Baldwin, attended.

The president, Mrs. Almon Henderson, had charge of the devotional and business periods with plans being formulated for class activities.

After an informal social hour, the hostess was assisted in serving a nicely appointed lunch by Mrs. Hillman, g.

Mrs. Homer Harshman invited the members to meet at her home, on the Ellwood-Zellenople road, for the February meeting on the first.

ELLWOOD CITY, Jan. 5.—Following the special prayer service in the United Presbyterian church last evening, members of the Anna Wilson class assembled in the Junior room for their January meeting.

Eighteen members attended. During the evening an interesting missionary talk was given by Mrs. Dorothy McElroy. After a brief business meeting a dainty repast was served by Mrs. Hazel Gamble, Mrs. Madeline Newton, Mrs. Louise Young and Mrs. Myrtle Moore.

On Tuesday evening, February 1, the next meeting will be held in the same place.

GRADUATE SORORITY
ELLWOOD CITY, Jan. 5.—Members of the Graduate Sorority held a brief business meeting on Tuesday evening in the Phalanx rooms, Lawrence avenue, to complete all their old business. Miss Catherine Biddle was in charge.

The girls will meet again next Tuesday evening at the same place.

P. H. C. Members Have Card Party

Following their regular meeting last evening members of the P. H. C. held the first in a series of card parties with a large attendance of members and their friends.

Awards for 500 went to Mrs. Susie Seetch, Mrs. Anna Morris, Carl Shirley and P. B. Forsythe, and for bingo to Emma Parker, Jennie Billig and Ivan Ishman.

At the close of the play, a tempting lunch was served by Mrs. Anna Morris, Mrs. Ida Duncan and Mrs. Iva Forsythe.

Plans were made to hold the installation services on Tuesday evening, February 1, and the next meeting will be held on Tuesday, January 18.

Supervising Principal Of Boro School District To Be League Chairman

(Special To The News)
PITTSBURGH, Pa., Jan. 5.—L. T. Evans, supervising principal of the Sheffield boro school district at Bland City, has been elected director of the Butler county program of the Pennsylvania Forensic and Music League, according to an announcement from the Extension Division of the University of Pittsburgh.

The university is the executive agency and sponsors the school music and speech contests in Pennsylvania.

Mr. Black, who succeeds Mr. Bruce A. Dennison of Slippery Rock, will direct the Butler county contests in the spring. First place winners qualify for the Northwestern district contest at Meadville.

Those who place first in the forty-seven music events and six speech events are eligible to participate in the eleventh annual state contests at Grove City, April 29 and 30. Previous state contests have been held at Pittsburgh, Harrisburg, Philadelphia, Altoona, Sunbury, Johnstown, Oil City and Pottsville.

Each year Pennsylvania high schools enter their bands, orchestras, choruses, ensembles, soloists, debate teams, orators, speakers, and readers in a series of county, district, and state-wide eliminations. Thirteen high schools in Butler county have been active participants during the last ten years.

Boyd Barrett, chairman of the leadership training committee, urged all those present to make a special effort to attend the training course that begins on Friday evening of this week at the City Building and will be open to all those interested in scouting.

ELLWOOD CITY, Jan. 5.—Mrs. Albert Graff was agreeably surprised Tuesday evening when she was presented with a beautiful gift by members of the Franklin Township Firemen's auxiliary, in appreciation of her faithful and untiring services as president of the organization during the first two years of its inception.

The presentation was made during the regular meeting held last night in the Firemen's hall, at Frisco, with an attendance of thirty-five members.

During the business meeting a number of reports were heard and approved. The remaining hours were spent in a pleasant manner with bingo providing the pastime with the award going to Mrs. Adeline Miller.

At the close of the evening, Mrs. Hatlie Craven and her committee served a most delicious lunch, after which the members departed for their homes to meet again on Tuesday, January 18.

Sons Of Legion Elect Officers
Meetings To Be Held Second And Fourth Wednesdays Of Each Month

ELLWOOD CITY, Jan. 5.—Sons of Legion of the J. Wilbur Randolph post assembled last evening in the Legion rooms, in Sixth street, for a business meeting with 19 members and their supervisor, J. Arthur Grandey, in attendance.

An election of officers to serve during 1938 was held and resulted: Captain, Bob Bracken; 1st Lieutenant, Mack Wilson; 2nd Lieutenant, Bill Wilson; adjutant, Charles Crawford; finance officer, Bob Dunning; sergeant-at-arms, Jim Evans; chaplain, Fred Sommers Jr., and historian, John Eichholtz.

The second and fourth Wednesdays of each month were set as the regular meeting nights with the next meeting scheduled for January 26.

It was decided to send two boys to the Boys' State camp for a period of 15 days during the summer months, with the expenses to be paid by the organization. During the future meetings, a number of outside activities will be planned.

ELLWOOD PERSONALS
Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Watterson and daughter, Katherine, and Miss Jean Young, of North Sewickley were New Year's dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Graham, of North Sewickley.

Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Huber of Wurttemberg and Mr. and Mrs. Russel Campbell and daughters, June and Ruth, of Ellport, were recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Wagner, of Butler.

Mr. and Mrs. James Rodgers and daughter, Helen, and Edith, and son, John, of Warren, O., were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Rodgers and family, of Franklin township.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Thomas of Aliquippa were guests on Tuesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Garfield Thomas and family of Hazel avenue.

ELLWOOD CITY, Jan. 5.—All-quippa proved too much for Ellwood City high school basketballers on Tuesday evening when they were defeated by the varsity by the lippemmen and in the afternoon the local junior high season at Lincoln court, were defeated by the Aliquippa juniors with the final score being 32 to 8.

The local juniors have been greatly handicapped for a place to practice and the lack of practice advantage. Early in the season they had a few hours practice at the Shelby court and during that time have had some little practice at the Lincoln court, where the days are crowded to capacity.

Friday afternoon the junior team will go to Beaver Falls junior high. The day that the Ellwood varsity plays at home the Ellwood juniors play the juniors of that school away.

ELLWOOD CITY, Jan. 5.—Neither the Kiwanis or Rotary clubs will follow their scheduled weekly programs, as both clubs will attend the community football banquet being held tonight at Shelby auditorium.

Next Tuesday evening, these clubs will unite along with other civic organizations in attending the Woman's club dinner. Dr. Harvey Gaul, of Pittsburgh, internationally known composer and critic, has been secured as the guest speaker.

Boy Scout Council Meets Last Night

New Plan Of Operation Of Council Is Explained By Officials

ELLWOOD CITY, Jan. 5.—The first regular monthly meeting of the Ellwood City District Boy Scout council was very well attended last night in the Scout office of the City Building. Chairman Carbeau presided and devoted much of the meeting to the discussion and explanation of the new plan of operation of the council.

The new arrangement of officers and committees under the new set up consists of the chairman of the district council, Carbeau acting as general chairman of all committees with Secretary Bradley, Treasurer Magee, Commissioner Danner, Vice Chairman Barrett, Second Vice Chairman Runyan, Third Vice Chairman Bessor, as chairman of certain committees with the committee being broken down into specific duties and one person responsible to the chairman for his particular assignment.

Camping was discussed by Howard and Gills and several questions were brought up which will be answered at next meeting when Mr. Gills gives his program and plans for next summer's campaign based upon reported samples of the drinking water from wells and the spring had been forwarded by the testing laboratories at Philadelphia but to date no report of the analysis has been received.

For the benefit of several new members the plans and purpose of Boy Scout Anniversary Week to be held February 6th to 12th inclusive, was discussed and the chairman solicited the full cooperation of each man present to put the project across in a successful manner.

An anniversary dinner will be held in Ellwood City on Tuesday, February 8. The speaker will be an outstanding man in his field and further details will be announced at a later date.

Boyd Barrett, chairman of the leadership training committee, urged all those present to make a special effort to attend the training course that begins on Friday evening of this week at the City Building and will be open to all those interested in scouting.

Stock Market Shows Gains

Market Adds Modestly To Runup Of Session Of Tuesday Afternoon

By LESLIE GOULD
International News Service
Financial Writer

NEW YORK, Jan. 5.—The stock market today added modestly to the previous session's runup of 1 to more than 4 points. Initial dealings gave indications of another broad advance, but late forenoon profit-taking cut the gains.

Douglas was up well over a point, closely followed by Boeing and United Aircraft, but gains were reduced to minor fractions by the later realizing.

Coppers turned in a somewhat similar performance, after Anaconda had moved up a point or so. U. S. Steel was forced slightly under last night's final quotation by profit taking, after ruling fractionally higher through the first hour.

Youngstown, Bethlehem and Republic, though, maintained a portion of gains running to more than a point.

Among the star blue-chips were Eastman Kodak, up almost 3 points, Allied Chemical 5, Case more than 3, Coca-Cola 2 and American Can just under 2.
